Oak Park River Forest Infant Welfare Society's Celebrates Success of 3rd Annual Tee It Up Fore Kids

109 golfers enjoyed the Oak Park River Forest Infant Welfare Society's 3rd Annual Tee It Up Fore Kids event held on June 16th at Ruffled Feathers Golf Club in Lemont, Illinois. The event included eighteen holes of championship golf, grill lunch, challenge holes, 19th hole reception, silent auction, and prizes. The grand finale was a helicopter golf ball drop. The fundraiser benefits the IWS Children's Clinic, a full-service health clinic, offering medical, dental and behavioral health services to underserved families in 50 communities in west suburban Cook County and the City of Chicago.

"Our event is growing every year with more sponsors and more golfers. It's a fun outing for a great cause." noted Brett Samuels, co-chair. "We are grateful all of our supporters for helping us raise money toward our goal of $50,000 for the Oak Park River Forest Infant Welfare Society and our IWS Children's Clinic. These funds will give 3,200 children in our community the health care they need."
