

OPRF INFANT WELFARE SOCIETY PHOTOS

Hannah Fisher of Evanston, Bridget McNamara of Evanston, Emily Fishkin of Evanston, Abigail Pirc of Forest Park, Nick Robins of Oak Park, Kate Tabor of Evanston, John Robinson of Oak Park, Liz Robinson of Oak Park, Sam Fishkin of Evanston and Jonathan Pirc of Forest Park

Society Does "Lil Sumpin" for the Kids

The Oak Park River Forest Infant Welfare Society hosted a brand new fundraising event at Lagunitas Brewing Co. in Chicago July 20.

Named in honor of one of their favorite Lagunitas brews, "Lil Sumpin' for the Kids" was held to benefit the Infant Welfare Society Children's Clinic, a full-service pediatric medical clinic that serves low-income children in more than 50 communities throughout Chicago.

Luring them in with Lou Malnati's pizza, beer tastings and a tour of the brewing company, the event attracted more than 120 people and raised more than $3,000 for the clinic, which provided care to 3,300 children in 10,200 medical, dental and behavioral health visits last year.

"We want to thank everyone for their support," said event co-chair Mary Cate Kuhl. "It was a very successful first year and we hope next year is even bigger!"

—Pioneer Press staff report

Rachel Baskin of Chicago, Jack Brofman of Chicago, John and Becky Brofman of Oak Park, and Dr. Jill Baskin of River Forest

IWS member Julianne Nery and Joe Nery, and IWS staff members Naomi Tselepis and Mindy Ondrla, all of Oak Park

IWS Children's Clinic Executive Director Elizabeth Lippitt, Megan Mugnaini, Tony Busconi and IWS Board president Lynne Williams, all of Oak Park